The Peach King Centre in Grimsby is getting a major upgrade, and a new name to boot.

Town of Grimsby hosted a reveal

Monday at the Peach King Centre which will now be known as the Major Refrigeration Peach King Centre.

It has been named for Major Refrigeration Ltd., a Grimsby-based refrigeration service provider, which has committed $500,000 in donations to the centre's renovations over 10 years.

Company co-founders Marty Hicks and Jordan Hughes were on-site for the unveiling.

"We're proud and humbled," Hicks said.

He and Hughes started Major Refrigeration in 2012 after Hicks moved from Dunnville.

With three series victories in their pockets, the Grimsby Peach Kings are moving on to a family foe after sweeping Dundas Blues in four straight games to get to New Hamburg Firebirds.

While the opposition is all too familiar - the Firebirds knocked the Peach Kings out last year 4-1 - the confines for their home games will provide a first - the Fleming Centre in Beamsville.

"As far as I know, it will mark the first time the Peach Kings have played a home playoff game anywhere other than Grimsby," said team co-owner Simon Duong.

The series schedule is set:

- Game 1 - Fri., April 4 7:30 p.m. @ NH
- Game 2 - Sat. April 5 7:30 p.m. @ PK
- Game 3 - Mon. April 7, 7:30 p.m. @ NH
- Game 4 - Thurs. April 10, 7:30 p.m. @ PK (If Necessary)
