

newsnow

Thursday, June 19, 2025
Vol. 14
Issue 8

newsnowniagara.com
100% Niagara West owned & operated

Circ: 29,006

Proudly serving Grimsby, Lincoln, West Lincoln & Winona

Allegations unfounded, break protocol: Baradziej

By Mike Williscraft
NewsNow

Grimsby council had another dust up - of sorts - on Monday night Coun. Veronica Charrois setting her sights on Coun. Jacob Baradziej with a pointed Notice of Motion.

Her NoM, which gained approval to be dealt with at Monday's meeting, outlined a lengthy series of absences and late arrivals for Baradziej in recent months.

Aside from the allegations, the NoM did not follow the protocol set in place by this council that mediation be the first point of dispute settlement and that the issue was not directed through the Town's integrity commissioner.

Charrois's NoM asked council to remove Baradziej from several posts and bar him from possible deputy mayor duties as well as demanding a written apology.

Charrois outlined the lengthy series of issues she has chronicled regarding Baradziej including failure to attend the mandatory, special, in-person council meeting on June 2, repeated absences and lateness over "past several months have raised serious concerns about his commitment to his obligations as an elected official."

On the special meeting, Baradziej
See NoM Page 3

Boom!

From left, reenactors Capt. Jacquie Durham, Lance Corporal Sophie Durham and Privates Mark Les and Ray Henriksbo fire a volley at Nelles Manor Museum's Engagement at The Forty hosted on Saturday. For more coverage, please turn to Page 6. Loree - Photo